Country of destination: GREECE

Place: ATHENS

Language : English

Dates: 26th Sept – 3rd Oct 2020 13-20 March 2021

17-24 April 2021

8-15 May 2021

5-12 June 2021

Course objectives:

This course aims to train teachers to think critically about heritage and to develop skills which can be used to influence the design of new teaching materials . Through this course , teachers can improve their visual literacy in learning how to read a building and to appreciate landscapes, views and vistas. For students, heritage is fun and participatory. It allows those from different ethnic backgrounds to gain a sense of belonging as their own heritage stories are told and valued.

- Creation of an integrated methodology enforcing positive values in teaching
- Implementation of hands on methodology of teaching involving schoolchildren from 5 to 18 years old, featuring the use of new technologies.
- Enhance student's mental, emotional, physical, and social development through a well-defined curriculum

Course Methodology :

Our courses, developed in the framework established by the Erasmus+ Programme, are crafted to include both formal and non-formal education methodologies. Starting with a theoretical approach to the theme of the course, we proceed with non-formal learning strategies in order to guarantee and stimulate an active contribution from the participants involved. In practice, we use:

- Presentations
- Analysis of study cases
- Discussions and debates
- Role-plays
- Technical visits to local private and public institutions
- Conferences with local professionals to exchange good practices
- Job shadowing experiences
- Workshops to rethink old practices and introduce new ones

PRICE :

Course Fee: €490 Tuition + 200 € Organisational costs

TOTAL: €690
